The Weekly Francis Scott Key Newsletter

"No man needs a vacation so much as a man who had just had one."

Elbert Hubbard*

This Week: April 13-17, 2020

Hello, I'm an introvert. You would think I've got this quarantine thing under control and normally this wouldn't be a problem, but I happen to be quarantining with two extraverts. I am NEVER alone. I can't even get out of the house to walk the dog alone. It's like "whoop hoo, let's take the dog for a spin!" and Clifford is like "I'm going to sniff here, and over there, and ooh what's that? It looks fabulously disgusting!" Also there seems to be some confusion on what my job role is nowadays. Am I a teacher, activities director, or mediator? Let's play spin the wheel! Whoop hoo! So far, the fish is winning all of my affection for obvious reasons: he's silent, has a bowl, I toss in some pellets and I am done!

Let's face it, we are all tired and whatever grand plans we had for quarantine are slowly fizzling out. Next week we start the third phase of homeschooling. I presume we will be getting instructions on what that entails, but as someone who likes detailed instructions with exact times and specific assignments I don't think I'm going to get what I want.

In other news, the PTA Board met last night to discuss the budget for next year. We really need people to attend the 4/16 General PTA Meeting to approve the budget next week. Please consider attending; this is the future of your school.

In addition, I will be changing up the newsletter for the next few weeks to reflect our current "situation." We are adding weekly recipes, activities for the family, and a list of FSK family restaurants that are doing take out. Let's support our community! This week I am still working on the transition so not everything promised will appear, but please stay tuned.

And as always, please visit our websites for the school calendar, event information, and updates : <https://myfsk.org/>; <https://www.facebook.com/FSKschool>.

Support Our School

While we are all in quarantine and ordering "stuff" on Amazon, consider using the AmazonSmile feature. It's good for the school and with all the budget cuts next year you would be doing your kids a huge favor.

- Set your Amazon account to AmazonSmile and select FSK PTA to make sure part of your purchases goes back to our school.
- Direct Donations to FSK PTA: Please support our PTA with a direct donation. You may donate online at <https://myfsk.org/get-involved/donate/>
- Fundraising Web Page for more information about helping out the school: <https://myfsk.org/get-involved/pta/fundraising/>

Thank you for your generous support!

Recipe Round-Up

Spaghetti alla Carbonara

GOURMET MARCH 2003

<https://www.epicurious.com/recipes/food/views/spaghetti-alla-carbonara-107810>

YIELD Makes 4 main-course servings

INGREDIENTS

- 5 oz of pancetta or bacon
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- 1/4 cup dry white wine
- 1 lb spaghetti
- 3 large eggs
- 1 1/2 oz Parmigiano-Reggiano, finely grated (3/4 cup)
- 3/4 oz Pecorino Romano, finely grated (1/3 cup)
- 1 teaspoon coarsely ground black pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

PREPARATION

- Cut bacon or pancetta into 1/3-inch dice, then cook in a deep 12-inch heavy skillet over moderate heat, stirring, until fat begins to render, 1 to 2 minutes. Add onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until onion is golden, about 10 minutes. Add wine and boil until reduced by half, 1 to 2 minutes.
- Cook spaghetti in a 6- to 8-quart pot of boiling salted water until al dente.
- While pasta is cooking, whisk together eggs, Parmigiano-Reggiano, Pecorino Romano (1/3 cup), 1 teaspoon coarsely ground black pepper, and 1/4 teaspoon salt in a small bowl.
- Drain spaghetti in a colander and add to onion mixture, then toss with tongs over moderate heat until coated. Remove from heat and add egg mixture, tossing to combine. Serve immediately.

Cooks' note: The eggs in this recipe will not be fully cooked, which may be of concern if there is a problem with salmonella in your area.*

Quarantine Spotlight

This week, as previously threatened, we interview my fish. The best member of the Toby household...Wave.

Where were you born? I was born in the belly of a whale in the mighty ocean.
No you weren't. Try again. No? Well, maybe it was a fish farm, or a pet store, but there was definitely a giant whale and a mermaid with a treasure chest.

What is your favorite thing to do? I like to practice my sushi chef skills by yelling orders over the bowl to whoever is cooking. Then I hide in my castle and pretend it was the dog.

What do you enjoy doing in your free time? I read cookbooks. I'm a classically trained chef. I trained while listening to classical music. I'm really good at basting.

Favorite place to travel? Normally I hang out in the kitchen at home, giving pointers on cooking, but sometimes I get walked across the street to see my friends. They have a whole different selection of humans over there. Sometimes I go hang out in their kitchen too and criticize their cooking. It's the best! They are so clueless!

What is your dream adventure? I would like to take a swim in the bathtub. I've heard it's really huge and there are mermaids and dinosaurs. That would be awesome!

Favorite Food? I like the Beta pellets I get. I did NOT like the Beta Buffet flakes. They were terrible, I can't believe anyone would call that food. Uh huh, my food needs to be circular like my bowl. Everything needs to match.

Favorite band/song? Elvis. I like anything from Blue Hawaii and I particularly like his Blue Suede Shoes songs best even though I sing it "Blue Suede Fins."

Other Fun Facts? I like when people wear blue. They look just right. Everyone should wear blue. Blue is best. Blue is awesome!

Places open in the Neighborhood:

I did not compile this list, I also feel like this list was compiled a while ago so if there are mistakes please be kind. Highlighted businesses are part of our FSK community. If you have additions, corrections, or if you are an FSK family who owns a business I will gladly highlight you on this list. Send me an email to: executivevp@francisscottkeyschool.org
